Whilst the members of Eastbourne Bonfire Society will take all reasonable care of your children, they cannot be held responsible for any loss, damage or injury suffered by them.

As parent/guardian it is your responsibility to ensure your children understand that any rules and instructions given must be obeyed, for the safety of all. By joining EBS, members are agreeing to abide by current society rules (available on our website or from the membership secretary).

In the event of the rules not being adhered to, your children will be unable to attend future events without a responsible adult.

Upon joining EBS, your children's personal data are held securely in both electronic and hard formats. If they cease to be a member, we will undertake to destroy data held.

Your children's data are held for the exclusive use of EBS and will not be shared with third parties. Medical and emergency contact details may be shared with emergency services, if necessary, in time of illness or accident whilst on society business.

Photographs including your children may be used to promote the society.
